SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

The Emerald City of the Pacific Northwest: Seattle's stately skyline sparkles against a backdrop of inland seas and snowcapped mountains. Shop glittering downtown, the bustling Farmers' Market, historic Pioneer Square where the city began. See it all from the top of the Space Needle.

GLACIER BAY NATIONAL PARK
(FULL-DAY SCENIC CRUISING)

One of Alaska's most dramatic sights. Before you, thousand-year-old glacial ice cliffs in countless shades of white, blue, gray and green rise straight from the sea. Suddenly, a slab the size of a house breaks off and "calves" into the sea in a spectacle of thunder and flying spray. On board is a National Park Service ranger to interpret every passing natural wonder, as well as a Huna Totem native speaker, for whom Glacier Bay is a sacred place. Unforgettable.

JUNEAU, ALASKA

Alaska's capital city is named after Joe Juneau, a gold miner who once wept openly because he'd made more money than he could possibly spend in a lifetime. (He hadn't; he died broke!) Step ashore to shop for gold nuggets, experience a true Alaskan cookout at the Gold Creek Salmon Bake, flightsee the Juneau Ice Field, visit the mighty Mendenhall Glacier just outside town.

SITKA, ALASKA

Tlingit Native American and Russian czarist-era culture are showcased in a temperate rain forest setting along Sitka National Historical Park's spectacular coastal trail. This one-time capital of Russian America reflects its rich heritage under the onion domes of the Orthodox St. Michael's Cathedral.

KETCHIKAN, ALASKA

With 3,000-foot-high Deer Mountain looming behind, there never was much room for Ketchikan to expand. So, much of the town is built on trestles, docks and pilings at water's edge. Explore historic Creek Street, now a covey of contemporary art galleries and quaint boutiques. Meet the spirits of the raven, whale and eagle as you view the largest collection of totems in the world at Totem Bight State Historical Park. Flightsee Misty Fjords National Monument.

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA

The most English city outside of England, Victoria boasts a beautiful harbor, high tea at the stately Empress Hotel, historic museums and the world-famous Butchart Gardens.
